2 RECORDAL

- 2.1 PASA was duly constituted on 15 August 1996 as an association recognised by the Reserve Bank as payment system management body as contemplated in section 3(1) of the NPS Act. A copy of the “Certificate of Establishment” of PASA, dated 15 August 1996, is attached hereto as Annexure AA.
- 2.2 No person may participate in the Reserve Bank settlement system and/or be allowed to clear unless such a person is a member of the payment system management body recognised by the Reserve Bank, being PASA.
- 2.3 This Constitution, which replaces and supersedes all previous constitutions, sets out –
 - 2.3.1 the obligations and powers of PASA as payment system management body established with the object of organising, managing and regulating the participation of its Members in the payment system including, in relation to its Members, all matters affecting payment instructions; and
 - 2.3.2 the rights and obligations of Members and of Provisional Members.
- 2.4 This Constitution and any amendments thereto, bind PASA to every Member in its capacity as Member of PASA, and in such capacity every Member of PASA to every other Member. In addition, Members agree to be bound by PASA Policies as if included in this Constitution. If there is a conflict between the provisions of this Constitution and a PASA Policy, this Constitution will prevail.
- 2.5 This Constitution will furthermore serve to –

- 2.5.1 assist PASA in maintaining its recognition by the Reserve Bank as payment system management body;
- 2.5.2 ensure compliance by PASA of its obligations as payment system management body;
- 2.5.3 enable the Reserve Bank to effectively oversee PASA and to monitor, regulate and supervise payment, clearing and settlement systems as contemplated in section 10(1)(c) of the South African Reserve Bank Act 90 of 1989;
- 2.5.4 ensure that each Councillor, in discharging his duties, shall -
 - 2.5.4.1 act consistently in the best interests of the NPS;
 - 2.5.4.2 exercise an independent and unfettered discretion and judgment on matters that come before Council.
- 2.6 Except to the extent expressly provided for in this Constitution, no person other than a Member shall have any rights under this Constitution or to enforce any provision (express or implied) of this Constitution. This clause is not intended to prejudice any right or remedy of a third party which may exist or be available apart from this Constitution.

3 LEGAL STATUS

- 3.1 PASA is a juristic person with its own legal identity which is separate from its Members. PASA shall continue to exist, despite changes in its membership from time to time.
- 3.2 PASA may acquire, own and dispose of property (movable, corporeal and/or incorporeal), enter into contracts and institute or defend itself against any legal action.
- 3.3 No Member or Provisional Member shall be liable in any way for loss and/or damage that may be suffered by PASA through any act or omission of any other Member, Provisional Member and/or PASA and/or any of its servants and/or agents and/or employees in the execution of any duty, unless such loss or damage is the result of that Member's negligence, wilful misconduct or fraud.
- 3.4 No Member shall have any right to and/or interest in any of the property or funds of PASA.
- 3.5 PASA shall apply its surplus and/or income in promoting its objectives and shall not at any time, make any distribution or pay any dividend and/or surplus to any of its Members.

- 11.1 PASA shall, subject to approval by Council, be entitled to levy fees, subscription and other charges from time to time to further its objectives as set out in clause 6.
- 11.2 Members shall, in addition to paying such other fees, subscriptions, levies and charges as determined by PASA from time to time, pay an annual subscription to PASA, calculated in accordance with clause 33.
- 11.3 PASA shall utilise all its funds in the furtherance of its objectives as set out in clause 6.
- 11.4 This does not preclude payment made by PASA, subject to approval by Council, of -
 - 11.4.1 remuneration by way of honorarium, fees or salaries, and the refund of authorised expenses incurred by any Member or Councillor, representatives, official, employee or person in return for any services rendered to PASA; and
 - 11.4.2 travelling, transport and subsistence expenses incurred by representatives and Members or Councillors in attending to the business of PASA, at rates specified by Council from time to time.

12 NOTIFICATION OF CHANGES TO MEMBER STATUS

- 12.1 If any Member disposes of all or the greater part of its assets, or amalgamates or merges with another entity or if there is a change in the controlling shareholding of that Member, that Member shall notify PASA in writing within 7 (seven) Days of such disposal, merger, amalgamation or change in shareholding and Council may-
 - 12.1.1 require the Member to re-apply for participation in PCHs;
 - 12.1.2 with the approval of the Reserve Bank, terminate Membership; and/or
 - 12.1.3 take or require any other action, as it may deem necessary.
- 12.2 Members must also notify PASA in writing, within 7 (seven) Days of –
 - 12.2.1 any and all changes which have an effect on their Membership or their participation in the NPS, or any PASA Structure;
 - 12.2.2 changes in domicile and representation;
 - 12.2.3 obtaining required approval of a change of status from the Registrar of Banks or other relevant regulator.

12.3 If any Member should fail to notify PASA as required by this clause¹², such a Member will not be acting as a Member in good standing as contemplated in clause 13.3 below.

13 MONITORING AND COMPLIANCE

13.1 PASA is responsible for –

13.1.1 promoting good practice by all its Members, by ensuring observance of the terms of this Constitution, PASA Policies and the Regulatory Framework of the NPS; and 13.1.2 preparing and publishing reports on the levels of compliance by Members.

13.2 PASA has the power to investigate alleged non-compliance with or contraventions of this Constitution, the Regulatory Framework of the NPS and PASA Policies and has the discretion to impose the appropriate sanctions for non-compliance and contraventions which include, but are not limited to the following –

13.2.1 publishing the details of non-compliance or contravention by a Member in its annual review;

13.2.2 withdrawing a Member's status of good standing as directed by Council after consultation with the Reserve Bank;

13.2.3 imposing a fine as directed by Council or as provided for in the Compliance Enforcement Policy; and/or 13.2.4 terminating Membership as contemplated in clause 14 below.

13.3 A Member shall not be acting as a Member in good standing if such a Member, when participating in the NPS -

13.3.1 does not comply with its obligations in terms of this Constitution;

13.3.2 acts in contravention of any PASA Policy or the Regulatory Framework of the NPS;

13.3.3 is in arrears with or defaults on payment of annual subscriptions levied by PASA;

13.3.4 acts in a manner which has a significant negative impact on the objectives of PASA;

13.3.5 brings PASA or any other Member of PASA into disrepute; or 13.3.6 causes unacceptable risk to PASA or to any of its Members.

13.4 As soon as PASA becomes aware of any conduct or action by a Member as contemplated in clause 13.3, such a Member shall be given written notice of PASA's intention to invoke the provisions of clause 13.2. The Member shall be entitled to make written representations in its defence to PASA as contemplated in the provisions of this Constitution, the Constitution of the PASA Structure involved or the Compliance Enforcement Policy.

13.5 When determining whether to withdraw a Member's status of good standing and/or to impose any sanction, including a fine, PASA shall, inter alia, consider the following factors -

- 13.5.1 whether written notice of non-compliance or contravention has been provided to the Member and the Member has failed to remedy the non-compliance or contravention;
- 13.5.2 the nature, duration, gravity and extent of non-compliance or the contravention;
- 13.5.3 any loss or damage suffered as a result of non-compliance or the contravention;
- 13.5.4 the behaviour of the Member;
- 13.5.5 the circumstances in which the non-compliance occurred or the contravention took place;
- 13.5.6 the degree to which the Member has co-operated with PASA; and
- 13.5.7 whether the Member has previously been non-compliant or in contravention of its obligations.
- 13.6 If PASA decides to-
 - 13.6.1 impose a fine, the maximum amount of such fine shall be determined by Council but may not exceed R1 million; and/or
 - 13.6.2 with the approval of the Reserve Bank, withdraw a Member's status of good standing, such a Member's rights and privileges will be suspended. A Member's status of good standing shall be re-instated only if Council and the Reserve Bank are satisfied that the Member has remedied the contravention or transgression, or has rectified the action causing it to be not in good standing; or
 - 13.6.3 terminate membership of a Member, it may only do so subject to the approval of the Reserve Bank.
- 13.7 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary above, a Member or Provisional Member who is dissatisfied with the decision of Council, shall be entitled to request Council to reconsider its decision and / or request a review of and/or to appeal the Council decision as contemplated in clause 34.
- 13.8 PASA shall be entitled to institute proceedings in a competent Court for the recovery of any fine imposed.

14 TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

- 14.1 Membership shall, subject to approval by the Reserve Bank, be terminated by Council-

- 19.22 When electing a deputy chairperson from nominated Independent Councillors (excluding the Ex Officio Councillors and the Chairperson), Council shall take into account the nominees' skills, knowledge and experience.
- 19.23 The election of a deputy chairperson shall take place on a vacancy of office or once every third year at a special meeting of Council following that year's General Meeting, or at a special meeting of Council as provided for in clause 19.8.
- 19.24 The term of office for the deputy chairperson shall be 3 (three) years or the remaining part of a term, which remaining part shall not be regarded as any term contemplated in clause 19.24.
- 19.25 No deputy chairperson may serve as deputy chairperson for more than 2(two) terms of 3(three) years each.
- 19.26 Council has the power to remove from office the deputy chairperson.

20 THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

- 20.1 Council shall, subject to approval of the Reserve Bank, appoint the Chief Executive Officer in terms of an employment contract approved by Council and shall ensure that he fulfils the duties set out in this clause 20.
- 20.2 Council may remove the Chief Executive Officer from office, subject to approval of the Reserve Bank.
- 20.3 The organisation of PASA and its day-to-day business and operations will be under the charge and general management and control of the Chief Executive Officer, subject to the powers and authority, general or special directions and instructions that Council may, from time to time, issue and/or delegate to the Chief Executive Officer.
- 20.4 The Chief Executive Officer shall be entitled to delegate any of his powers and/or assign any of his duties to any employee of PASA for any particular period or purpose, provided that such delegation or assignment is done in writing and is subject to the same terms and conditions as that set out in the Chief Executive Officer's employment agreement and to any general or special directions and instructions that Council may, from time to time, issue to the Chief Executive Officer.
- 20.5 The employee of PASA to whom the Chief Executive Officer has delegated or assigned powers or duties in accordance with the provisions of clause 20.4 shall act as alternate Councillor in the Chief Executive Officer's place during his absence and on such appointment being made, the appointed employee shall, in all respects, be subject to the duties, qualifications and conditions existing with reference to the other Councillors.

- 20.6 The Chief Executive Officer is accountable to Council, and is the chief executive officer of PASA. Apart from powers and duties included in an employment agreement by Council, the Chief Executive Officer -
- 20.6.1 must give effect to the strategy of PASA and the Reserve Bank and assist in the development of new strategies in order to achieve the objectives of PASA;
 - 20.6.2 must establish relationships with other interested parties, participants and stakeholders (other than Members) in the NPS and build trusted relationships with such parties in order to provide guidance on risk reduction measures in the NPS;
 - 20.6.3 must, at the direction of Council, authorise a person to act as a system operator or PCH system operator who complies with criteria recommended by Council and approved by the Reserve Bank;
 - 20.6.4 must appoint suitable staff to assist PASA in the performance of its functions and determine the conditions of service, remuneration, allowances and other benefits of such staff, subject to any general or special direction from Council;
 - 20.6.5 must actively assist Council in co-operation with the Reserve Bank to influence policy regarding the NPS;
 - 20.6.6 is responsible for the preparation and publication of –
 - 20.6.6.1 the annual report to be tabled at the General Meeting regarding the activities of PASA;
 - 20.6.6.2 the annual financial statements; and
 - 20.6.7 may establish PASA Structures and assign duties and functions to them.

21 PASA STRUCTURES

- 21.1 PASA Structures, established by PASA as contemplated in clause 7.1.23 or by the Chief Executive Officer as contemplated in clause 20.6.7, shall consist of –
- 21.1.1 employees of PASA (who are not entitled to vote); and/or
 - 21.1.2 designees; and/or
 - 21.1.3 other persons with appropriate knowledge, expertise and experience, who may not include Councillors, and who may be invited to attend PASA Structures on an ad hoc basis.
- 21.2 Forums shall primarily be called by PASA to consult on matters related to payments, payment systems and on strategy. Forums thus established shall be entitled to invite participants or stakeholders in the NPS other than Members to attend such meetings.

21.3 No decisions shall be binding on PASA or its Members, other than those taken by Council, the Chief Executive Officer and/or PASA Structures.

22 MEETINGS OF COUNCIL

- 22.1 The Chairperson failing him, the deputy chairperson of Council, shall be the chairperson of each meeting of Council, provided that if neither the Chairperson nor deputy chairperson is present or willing to act, the Councillors present shall elect a Councillor to be the chairperson of such a meeting.
- 22.2 The meetings of Council shall be held at such times and places as Council may determine, provided that –
- 22.2.1 at least 4 (four) meetings of Council are convened per year by not less than 14 (fourteen) days' prior written notice to all Councillors provided by PASA; and
- 22.2.2 the first meeting of Council shall be held in the month of February of each year and thereafter as and when required;
- 22.2.3 the Chief Executive Officer, Chairperson, deputy chairperson or any 3 (three) Councillors acting in concert may at any time convene a special meeting of Council, by giving written notice to all Councillors, at which meeting such shorter notice (if any) must be agreed to by all Councillors attending the meeting before the start of the meeting: provided further that if it is established that no quorum will be present based on the acceptance of invitations, such a meeting must be rescheduled by PASA;
- 22.2.4 any special meeting of Council may be cancelled by the person(s) who convened it;
- 22.2.5 a quorum is present.
- 22.3 A quorum for a Council meeting (including a special meeting of Council) shall be established at the meeting by sufficient persons to represent at least 80% (eighty percent) by number of the Councillors (excluding the Ex Officio Councillor appointed by the Reserve Bank and the Chairperson) entitled to vote.
- 22.4 If a quorum is not present a further meeting shall be scheduled by not less than 14 (fourteen) Days' prior written notice to all Councillors or as contemplated in clause 22.2.3.

23 VOTING AT MEETINGS OF COUNCIL

- 23.1 Council is required to seek consensus on any matter affecting PASA and / or its Members and / or other participants or stakeholders in the payments industry, including the granting of membership. If no consensus can be reached on any such matters at any meeting where the matter was tabled, or as contemplated in clause 23.8 below, then such matter must be put to a vote at such meeting or at the next scheduled meeting or alternatively, Council shall call a special meeting of Council for this purpose.

- 23.2 Where no consensus can be reached at a meeting of Council -
 - 23.2.1 each Councillor, excluding the Ex Officio Councillor appointed by the Reserve Bank and the Chairperson, shall be entitled to 1 (one) vote;
 - 23.2.2 alternate Councillors shall be entitled to vote if the principal Councillor appointed by the same Member is not present at the meeting;
 - 23.2.3 the Chairperson shall be entitled to a Casting Vote only.
- 23.3 All decisions by Council shall be carried by consensus, a Simple Majority Vote or a vote carried by the Chairperson's Casting Vote.
- 23.4 If Council is unable to make a decision for whatever reason, such matter may be referred by any Councillor to the Reserve Bank for a decision, which shall be final and binding.
- 23.5 The appointment of the Chairperson shall take place at a meeting of Council.
- 23.6 The election of the deputy chairperson of Council shall take place by secret ballot at a meeting of Council.
- 23.7 Save for clauses 23.6 and 23.8, voting on any other matter shall take place in the manner, at the time and place that the Chairperson directs.
- 23.8 Subject to clause 23.9, resolutions on matters may, in the Chairperson's discretion, be adopted by Council at an informal meeting or forum or in writing or by electronic communication (hereinafter referred to as a "round robin" approval), but excluding telephonic consent. Subject to clause 23.9, such resolutions, if passed, shall be as valid and effective as if passed at a meeting of Council properly called and held.
- 23.9 Resolutions on matters adopted by Council as contemplated in clause 23.8, shall -
 - 23.9.1 In the event of a round robin approval, only be obtained if considered urgent by the Chairperson which, in his opinion does not warrant Council debate; or
 - 23.9.2 In the event of an informal meeting or forum, only be obtained following debate and in principle support by Council; and
 - 23.9.3 Following the round robin approval or the informal meeting, be ratified by Council at a subsequent formal meeting of Council.

24 COUNCILLORS

- 24.1 Members that have maintained a Participation Percentage of more than 10% (ten percent) for the preceding 3 (three) Periods of Calculation may appoint 1 (one) principal and 1 (one) alternate Councillor each for a term of 3 (three) years. However, if such Members are less than 4 (four), then those 4 (four) Members with the highest Participation Percentage for the preceding 3 (three) Periods of Calculation must appoint 1 (one) principal and 1 (one) alternate Councillor each for a term of 3 (three) years (Members qualifying in terms of this clause shall annually be so advised by PASA).

24.2 Members not qualifying in terms of clause 24.1 above, excluding the Reserve Bank, must appoint 3 (three) Members from amongst them, which Members shall be entitled to appoint 1 (one) principal and 1 (one) alternate Councillor each for a term of 3 (three) years. Members qualifying in terms of this clause shall be so advised by PASA when scheduling a meeting with these Members. The purpose of the said meeting shall be to appoint the Members contemplated in this clause 24.2, for purposes of appointment of Councillors.

24.3 Members must, subject to clause 24.5, appoint principal and alternate Councillors who –

24.3.1 are suitably qualified and experienced to comply with the standards of Councillors’ conduct as set out in clause 27; and 24.3.2 are committed to the vision, mission and objectives of PASA.

24.4 When a Councillor is appointed by a Member, a Member’s chief executive officer or similar officer must submit to PASA a written declaration in a format acceptable to PASA, stating that the said Councillor has been mandated to act as provided for in clause 27.

24.5 Members must, before a Councillor is appointed,

24.5.1 nominate a candidate for approval by the Nomination and Induction Committee, which approval shall be informed by the appropriate mix of seniority, skills, experience and diversity required on PASA Council.

24.5.2 the Nomination and Induction Committee shall provide reasons in the event of it not approving a candidate nominated by a Member.

24.5.3 the Member shall be entitled to meet with the Nomination and Induction Committee to discuss and agree on a suitable candidate for appointment by the Member.

24.6 A person may not be a Councillor if that person -

24.6.1 personally or through a spouse, partner or associate has or acquires an interest in a business or enterprise, which may conflict or interfere with the proper performance of the duties of a Councillor;

24.6.2 serves on any board or similar governing body of a Member, system operator or PCH system operator or has been appointed by a Member as a shareholder representative of a system operator or PCH system operator;

- 24.6.3 represents a Member as contemplated in clause 15.1;
- 24.6.4 is an unrehabilitated insolvent or becomes insolvent and the insolvency results in the sequestration of that person's estate;
- 24.6.5 has ever been, or is, removed from an office of trust on account of misconduct involving dishonesty;
- 24.6.6 is subject to an order of a competent court holding that person to be mentally unfit or disordered;
- 24.6.7 within the previous 10 (ten) years has been, or is convicted, in the Republic or elsewhere, and imprisoned without the option of a fine, or fined for theft, fraud, forgery, perjury or an offence involving fraud, misrepresentation or dishonesty.
- 24.7 Ex Officio Councillors (excluding the Chief Executive Officer) may be appointed by the Reserve Bank to serve on Council by virtue of an office or position held, but shall not be entitled to vote. The Chief Executive Officer shall also be regarded as an Ex Officio Councillor, but shall have the right to vote.
- 24.8 Councillors appointed as contemplated in clauses 24.1 and 24.2 may from 1 January 2019 not serve as a Councillor for more than 3(three) terms of 3(three) years each out of a total of 15(fifteen) years.
- 24.9 Terms served before 1 January 2019 by a Councillor appointed as contemplated in clauses 24.1 and 24.2, shall not be taken into account in the calculation of a term of office of such Councillor.

25 CONFLICTING INTERESTS

- 25.1 A Councillor must promptly inform Council in writing after acquiring an interest that is, or is likely to become, an interest contemplated in clause 24.6.1.
- 25.2 A Councillor must not -
 - 25.2.1 engage in any activity that may undermine the integrity of the NPS or PASA;
 - 25.2.2 attend, participate in or influence the proceedings during a meeting of Council, if, in relation to the matter before Council, that Councillor has an interest-
 - 25.2.2.1 contemplated in clause 24.6.1; or
 - 25.2.2.2 that precludes that Councillor from performing the functions of a Councillor in a fair, unbiased and proper manner;
 - 25.2.3 vote at any meeting of Council in connection with a matter contemplated in clause 25.2.2.2;
 - 25.2.4 make private use of, or profit from, any information, which has been obtained as a result of performing that person's functions as a Councillor;

- 25.2.5 divulge any information, which has been obtained as a result of performing that person's functions as a Councillor and which has been identified or classified as confidential information, to any Member or third party, except as required as part of that person's official functions as a Councillor.
- 25.3 If, at any time, it appears to a Councillor that a matter being considered by Council at a meeting concerns an interest of that Councillor referred to in clause 24.6.1 or any interest that precludes that Councillor from performing the functions of a Councillor in a fair, unbiased and proper manner, that Councillor must-
- 25.3.1 immediately disclose the nature of that interest at the meeting; and recuse himself from the meeting to allow the remaining Councillors to discuss the matter; or
- 25.3.2 immediately recuse himself.
- 25.4 The disclosure and recusal by a Councillor in terms of clause 25.3, must be expressly recorded in the minutes of the meeting in question.

26 RESIGNATION, REMOVAL FROM OFFICE AND VACANCIES

- 26.1 Members who may appoint Councillors as contemplated in clause 24.1 shall ensure that if a vacancy should occur during the tenancy of a specific Councillor's term of office appointed by those Members, another Councillor is duly appointed.
- 26.2 Members who may appoint Councillors as contemplated in clause 24.2 shall ensure that if a vacancy should occur during the tenancy of a specific Councillor's term of office appointed by those Members, a meeting is called by PASA, as contemplated in clause 24.2, for the appointment of another Councillor.
- 26.3 A Councillor may either resign or a Member may remove a Councillor (excluding Ex Officio Councillors and the Chairperson) appointed by it by giving written notice to PASA.
- 26.4 A Chairperson may resign by giving written notice to PASA in accordance with the appointment contract approved by Council.
- 26.5 Council, after taking the steps required by clause 26.6 may remove a Councillor, including a Chairperson, from office, only if that Councillor, or Chairperson, has-
- 26.5.1 become disqualified in terms of or act contrary to clause 24.6; or
- 26.5.2 failed to recuse himself from a meeting as contemplated in clause 25.3; or
- 26.5.3 neglected to properly perform the functions of their office as required by clause 27.

26.6 Before removing a Councillor, or Chairperson, from office in terms of clause 26.4, Council must afford the person an opportunity to state a case in defence of his position at a meeting called by Council for that purpose. Any decision by Council thereafter shall be final.

27 STANDARDS OF COUNCILLORS' CONDUCT

- 27.1 It is specifically acknowledged that a Councillor stands in a fiduciary relationship to PASA. In accordance with his fiduciary duties, such Councillor must—
- 27.1.1 not use the position of Councillor, or any information obtained while acting as Councillor to—
- 27.1.1.1 gain an advantage for the Councillor, or for another person other than PASA; or
- 27.1.1.2 knowingly cause harm to PASA;
- 27.1.2 communicate to Council at the earliest practicable opportunity any information that comes to the Councillor's attention and which affects or concerns PASA, unless the Councillor —
- 27.1.2.1 reasonably believes that the information is—
- 27.1.2.1.1 immaterial to PASA; or
- 27.1.2.1.2 generally available to the public, or known to the other Councillors; or
- 27.1.2.2 is bound not to disclose that information by a legal or ethical obligation of confidentiality.
- 27.2 The fiduciary duties owed by each Councillor to PASA, also requires that such Councillor must exercise the powers and perform the functions of the Councillor—
- 27.2.1 in good faith and for a proper purpose;
- 27.2.2 with independent and unfettered discretion and judgment;
- 27.2.3 with due care, skill and diligence; and
- 27.2.4 in accordance with this Constitution, the Regulatory Framework of the NPS and all Applicable Laws.

28 ACCOUNTING RECORDS

- 28.1 PASA must keep accurate and complete accounting records at the registered office of PASA or at such other place as Members think fit, and shall always be open to inspection by Members.
- 28.2 Such accounting records must fairly present the state of affairs and business of PASA and explain the transactions and financial position of PASA.

29 FINANCIAL YEAR

The financial year of PASA shall end on 31 December.

30. ANNUAL FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND REPORTS

- 30.1 Each year, PASA must prepare annual financial statements within 6 (six) months after the end of its financial year, or such shorter period as may be appropriate.
- 30.2 The annual financial statements must be audited, and include an auditor's report;
- 30.3 PASA must prepare, at least annually, a report concerning its functions and activities as set out in this Constitution, which report must be submitted to the Reserve Bank.
- 30.4 PASA shall make the audited financial statements and the report referred to in clause 30.3 available to each Member together with the notice of the General Meeting convened as contemplated in clauses 16 and 17.

31. AUDITORS

Council shall recommend the appointment of an auditor at a General Meeting.

32. INDEMNITIES

PASA indemnifies each Member, Chairperson, Councillor, Designee and each employee of PASA against any loss, expense, liability or damage incurred by such person in the lawful, legal and bona fide execution and discharge of their rights and obligations in terms of this Constitution, save where such loss or liability arises out of and/or in connection with the negligence, wilful misconduct or fraud of such person.

33. SUBSCRIPTIONS OF MEMBERS

- 33.1 All Members, excluding Sponsored Clearing Members, shall pay upon admittance and thereafter annually, a subscription fee to fund PASA's budget, which subscription is calculated according to the formula, $A = B + C + D + E$ where -
 - 33.1.1 each Member's subscription (A) is calculated to include -
 - 33.1.1.1 30% (thirty percent) of PASA's budget divided equally amongst the Members (B);
 - 33.1.1.2 20% (twenty percent) of PASA's budget divided equally amongst the sum of all Members of the PCHs added together (C);
 - 33.1.1.3 25% (twenty five percent) of PASA's budget in the proportion of the Members' Throughput in Volume as a percentage of total Throughput in Volume of all the Members of PASA (D);
 - 33.1.1.4 25% (twenty five percent) of PASA's budget in the proportion to the Members' annual Throughput in Value as a percentage of Throughput in Value of all the Members of PASA (E).

- 33.2 This subscription formula and structure may be changed from time to time by a Simple Majority Vote of Council, after consultation with Members and having taken cognisance of the Constitution.
- 33.3 Sponsored Clearing Members shall upon admittance and thereafter annually, pay a subscription fee to fund PASA's budget, as determined by Council from time to time.
- 33.4 Annual subscriptions shall be paid in advance for each financial year, starting on 1 January and ending on 31 December of each year, and shall be due and payable each year within 30 (thirty) days from the date of the valid tax invoice issued by PASA. PASA shall issue and distribute invoices by no later than 31 January of each year.
- 33.5 Newly admitted Members shall pay a pro rata fee of the fixed component referred to in clause 33.1.1.1, which fee shall be -
- 33.5.1 payable once membership is granted and within 30 (thirty) days from the date of the valid tax invoice issued by PASA; and
- 33.5.2 calculated on the remaining number of months of the financial year, inclusive of the month in which membership is granted,
- 33.5.3 after which the normal annual subscription shall be payable.
- 33.6 Should a Member terminate its membership before 31 March in any year, and notice of such termination has been given in the preceding year, subscriptions will not be levied against that Member.
- 33.7 If, due to unforeseen circumstances and in the opinion of Council, further funds are required for purposes of carrying on the work of PASA, Council may impose additional levies proportionate to subscriptions of Members. The additional amount so levied shall be payable within such time as Council may specify.
- 33.8 Council shall not give a rebate in respect of the whole or a portion of a Member's subscriptions in any financial year.
- 33.9 Any unpaid subscriptions of any Member, which ceases to be a Member of PASA, shall be due and payable immediately.
- 33.10 It is specifically recorded that subscription fees payable by any Member shall not be disclosed or made known to any other Member.

34. RIGHT OF APPEAL AND REQUEST FOR RECONSIDERATION

Appeal by an institution or body against a decision by the Chief Executive Officer regarding membership

- 34.1 Any institution or body, eligible for membership of PASA in terms of the NPS Act, may appeal to Council against a decision by the Chief Executive Officer, to decline membership to such institution or body, provided that –
- 34.1.1 such institution or body gives written notice of appeal to Council, and a copy thereof to the Chief Executive Officer, within 14 (fourteen) days after being notified by PASA in writing of the Chief Executive Officer’s decision; and
- 34.1.2 the notice referred to in clause 34.1.1 above, includes the grounds for appeal, as well as written representations to Council.
- 34.2 The Chief Executive Officer shall have the right, having considered the grounds for appeal and the written representations by the institution or body, to make written representations to Council within 14 (fourteen) days of receipt of the said notice.
- 34.3 Council shall, after considering the appeal, either, ratify, amend or reject the Chief Executive Officer’s decision and provide written reasons for its decision.
- 34.4 If the affected institution or body is not satisfied with Council’s decision, such institution or body shall be entitled to appeal to the Reserve Bank, provided that-
- 34.4.1 such institution or body gives written notice of appeal to the Reserve Bank, and a copy thereof to Council, within 14 (fourteen) days after being notified by PASA in writing of Council’s decision or within such further period as the Reserve Bank may allow, on good cause shown; and
- 34.4.2 the notice of appeal referred to in clause 34.4.1 above, includes the grounds for appeal, as well as written representations to the Reserve Bank.
- 34.5 Council shall have the right, having considered the grounds for appeal and the written representations by the institution or body to the Reserve Bank, to make written representations to the Reserve Bank within 14 (fourteen) days of receipt of the notice.
- 34.6 The Chief Executive Officer shall not have the right to appeal Council’s decision in terms of clause 34.3, to the Reserve Bank.

Request by a Member or Councillor, to Council, to reconsider its decision

- 34.7 Any Member shall be entitled to request Council to reconsider a decision made by it, or by the Chief Executive Officer, if the Member considers the decision to be unfair or prejudicial to its interests or on the grounds mentioned in clause 34.15. The Member must submit a request, together with written representations, to Council within 14 (fourteen) days of being notified by PASA in writing of the decision of Council or the Chief Executive Officer, or within such further period as Council may allow on good cause shown. Council shall have a discretionary right to suspend any action and not to implement the decision made by it or by the Chief Executive Officer, pending the outcome of the reconsideration.

- 34.8 Any Member or any Councillor shall be entitled to request Council to reconsider a decision, made by it, or by the Chief Executive Officer, if it considers such decision to be harmful to the NPS or to PASA or on the grounds mentioned in clause 34.15. The Member or Councillor must submit the request, as well as its written representations, to Council within 14 (fourteen) days of being notified by PASA in writing of the decision of Council, or within such further period as Council may allow, on good cause shown. Council shall have a discretionary right to suspend any action and not implement its or the Chief Executive Officer's decision, pending the outcome of the reconsideration.
- 34.9 The Chief Executive Officer or any other Member may reply to the request and the written representations mentioned in clauses 34.7 and 34.8 in writing within 14 (fourteen) days of being notified thereof by PASA, or within such other period as Council may allow on good cause shown, for consideration by Council.

Appeal by a Member to the Reserve Bank against a decision by Council

- 34.10 If any Member is not satisfied with the outcome of the decision by Council pursuant to a request in terms of clauses 34.7 or 34.8, the Member shall be entitled to appeal to the Reserve Bank, provided that-
- 34.10.1 the Member submits its notice of appeal to the Reserve Bank in writing within 14 (fourteen) days of being notified by PASA in writing of the decision by Council pursuant to a request in terms of clauses 34.7 or 34.8 or within such further period as the Reserve Bank may allow on good cause shown; and
- 34.10.2 the notice referred to in clause 34.10.1 includes the grounds for appeal, as well as the written representations to the Reserve Bank.
- 34.11 Subject to clause 34.12, the decision of Council, pursuant to a request in terms of clauses 34.7 or 34.8, shall stand.
- 34.12 The Reserve Bank has a right to suspend the decision made by Council pending its decision referred to in clause 34.14.
- 34.13 Council shall be entitled to reply to the grounds for appeal and the written representations referred to in clause 34.10.2 within 14 (fourteen) days of being notified thereof by PASA in writing, by making written representations to the Reserve Bank for its consideration.

34.14 The Reserve Bank may confirm, vary or set aside the decision of Council. The Reserve Bank shall communicate the outcome of the appeal, together with any instructions it deems fit, in writing to Council and the Member. Any such decision by the Reserve Bank shall be final.

Grounds for appeal

34.15 The phrase “grounds for appeal” as mentioned in this clause 34 includes any grounds available in law.

35. AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION

35.1 Any proposed amendment/s to this Constitution may be approved at a General Meeting, provided that –

35.1.1 at least 21 (twenty-one) days prior written notice of the meeting was provided to each Member; and

35.1.2 the notice of such meeting shall contain the full text of the proposed amendment/s, if any;

35.2 The amendment/s shall thereafter be provided to the Reserve Bank for approval, together with minority views by Members not supporting the amendment/s.

35.3 Subject to clauses 35.4 to 35.6, any amendment/s to this Constitution shall be effective, following approval thereof by the Reserve Bank.

35.4 If any Member (“aggrieved Member”) is not satisfied with the outcome of the decision by Members at a General Meeting, the aggrieved Member shall be entitled to appeal to the Reserve Bank, provided that-

35.4.1 the aggrieved Member submits its notice of appeal to the Reserve Bank and to Council in writing within 14 (fourteen) days of the date of the General Meeting or within such further period as the Reserve Bank may allow on good cause shown; and

35.4.2 the notice referred to in clause 35.4.1 includes the grounds for appeal, as well as the written representations to the Reserve Bank.

35.5 Council shall be entitled to reply to the grounds for appeal and the written representations referred to in clause 35.4.3.

36. NOTICES

36.1 Any notice given by PASA shall be in writing and shall –

36.1.1 if delivered by hand be deemed to have been duly received by the addressee on the date of delivery;

- 36.1.2 if posted by prepaid registered post be deemed to have been received by the addressee on the 8th (eighth) Business Day following the date of such posting;
- 36.1.3 if transmitted by facsimile be deemed to have been received by the addressee 1 (one) Business Day after despatch;
- 36.1.4 if sent electronically, shall be deemed to have been received on the first Business Day following the successful transmission thereof as evidenced by the electronic confirmation of receipt (unless the contrary is proven).
- 36.2 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Constitution, a written notice or communication actually received by a Member at its chosen address set out above shall be an adequate written notice of communication to such Member.

37. DISSOLUTION

- 37.1 Subject to approval by the Reserve Bank, PASA may be dissolved, if at a meeting of Council convened for the purpose of considering the matter, Councillors voted in favour of dissolution by Simple Majority Vote.
- 37.2 Not less than 21 (twenty-one) days written notice shall be given of a meeting of Council where the dissolution of PASA is the item to be discussed and such notice shall clearly state that the question of dissolution and disposal of the assets of PASA shall be considered.
- 37.3 Upon the dissolution of PASA, all debts of PASA shall be discharged and the remaining funds and assets shall, at the direction of the Reserve Bank, be transferred to another association or institution having similar objects. In the absence of such an association or institution, the remaining funds and assets shall be distributed amongst Members as at the date of dissolution on such basis as Council may decide.
- 37.4 It is specifically recorded that the liability of Members on dissolution shall be limited to the amount of subscriptions due by them to PASA in terms of this Constitution as at the date of dissolution.
